LOVE THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF

Paloma — Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.

Leader — In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begatten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

P — Bloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

L — For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

P — There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

L — Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for therby some have entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also of the body.

P — But ye will teach them to walk in the ways of truth and soberness; ye will teach them to love one another, and to serve oneanother.

L — And he commanded them that there should be no contention one with another, but that they should look forward with one eye, having one faith and one baptisim; having their hearts knit together in unity and in love, one towards another.

P — Bretheren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ....As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of fatih;

L — Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even the beard of Aaron; that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

Jack-n-Jill

Last week's Jack-n-Jill softball tournament was described as a success by women's intramural chairman Jana Berry.

The tournament was played last week end by teams composed of brother-sister houses. Each team had to have five men and five women, with the men being restricted to batting with their opposite hand. In exciting competition Closson-Atara place first, followed by Paloma-Aaron and Solah-Stewart Manor.

For more Jack-n-Jill competition check with your intramural chairman or the intramural boards in the MSC.

On Our Own

Womens' Volleyball

Graceland's women's volleyball season began August 24 and 25 when a talented group of freshmen women were chosen to join six returning players.

Linda Brandt, Lisa Kaleikau, Anita Norman, Holly Phillips, Marjorie Serig, and Julie Williams have returned from last year's team and will be playing again this year. Last year's team had a disappointing 44 win, 60 loss season.

Lena Baskin, Becky Fox, Nancy Reider, Pat Smith, Susan Webb and Lori Williams bring their talent to the Yellowjacket team. Coach Barbara Hamann says she again looks forward to another season and comments that "its going to be hard to pick a first string–this is the most talented team Graceland has had."

The squad's first scheduled match is tomorrow at Simpson College Rating Clinic in Indianola, Iowa.
